

HOPE TO CLEAR UP DREW MYSTERY BY NEW WITNESSES

Detectives After Talk With Young Mountaineer Say Solution Is Near.

GIRL'S BROTHER FOUND.

District-Attorney Hopes to Prove Victim Was Intercepted on Road and Killed.

(Special to The Evening World.) Y. July 28.—Detectives Powers and Under reported to District-Attorney O'Brien to-day that they had found two new witnesses who are expected to shed light on the mysterious murder of Hazel Drew, whose body was found in Teal's Pond.

One of the witnesses is known to be Willie Drew, the little brother of the dead girl, who at the time of the murder was staying at the farmhouse of Mrs. Libbie Sowalsky, on Bear Road, about two miles from Teal's Pond. The other witness is Mrs. Sowalsky's son, a big, muscular chap of twenty, who is regarded as being somewhat lacking in intelligence. Young Sowalsky was questioned closely by the detectives last night and will be one of the first witnesses called when the inquest into the girl's death is resumed to-morrow afternoon.

The detectives told Mr. O'Brien they had learned enough during their investigations yesterday and last night to convince them that Hazel Drew was bound for the Sowalsky home to see her brother on the night of her murder, July 1, and that she was intercepted and led to the pond where she was put to death. They said also that they were near the solution of the mystery.
Willie Drew spent part of the summer at the home of his uncle, William Taylor, but left there as he and the uncle did not get along well together and took up his abode with the Sowal-skys. A few days ago he returned to the home of his parents in this city.
The dead girl was devoted to her brother. It is said that she thought more of him than any other member of her family, and the belief now is that on the night she was slain she was on the way to the Sowalsky farm to tell her brother good-by, she having decided to leave this part of the State.
When a reporter for The Evening World saw Willie Drew last night he said:

"I went to the officers to-day and told them all I knew about my sister's murder. That wasn't much either. I told them I knew Hazel would never have gone away without telling me good-by. I am sure she was on her way to Mrs. Sowalsky's when she started up the road that leads past the pond. She had no other friends in the neighborhood."

"What sort of fellow is Mrs. Sowal-sky's son?" a detective asked the boy.
"He's big and naughty," the boy answered. Willie then told of Sowal-sky's cruelties to animals on the farm.
At the home of the Sowalskys it was said that on the night of July 7 young Sowalsky was not off the farm. From another source, however, it was learned that he was away and that he met Frank Smith and had a talk with him, either before or after Smith says he met Hazel Drew on the road. Sowalsky told the detectives:

"I went to Troy on July 6, but I was not away from home that night or the next. I did not know Hazel Drew's body had been found until the following Monday, when Willie, who had been staying at our house, told me he was going to Troy to help look for the murderer."

Her Chum to Testify.

Carrie Weaver, who was Hazel Drew's chum in this city, will return to-day from Springfield, O., where she has been spending a vacation. The officials of Rensselaer County yesterday received word from Miss Weaver to the effect that Miss Drew undoubtedly had friends who made possible her many social pleasures and diversions. Miss Weaver is essentially a country girl, despite her six months' residence in Troy.

One of Miss Weaver's first remarks was in regard to Miss Drew's financial ability. It has been and still is a constant source of wonder to Miss Weaver how her friend managed to live so well to wear such stylish costumes, to take so many and so extended trips and to

After the Battle

Tales of strife are always interesting.
The story of a contest for first place among all the newspapers of the earth is no exception to this rule.

Armed with a daily circulation in New York City DOUBLE that of any other morning newspaper, The World has won two more decisive victories, printing 5,033 separate advertisements during the last two days—600 more than were published in ANY TWO OTHER New York morning newspapers JOINTLY, including The Herald.

NO OTHER NEWSPAPER IS WITHIN PIPING DISTANCE OF THE WORLD AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

enjoy so many luncheons at such expensive hostesses on her wages as a governess.
Miss Weaver was loud in her praise of the adventures the latter compiled in her of trips up and down the Hudson on first-class boats, and trips by rail to Providence, Boston and other neighboring cities, she protested all the while that Miss Drew explicitly stated that she had no men friends.

SMALL-POX ON BARBAROSSA.

There was a case of small-pox on board the North German steamer Barbarossa, which arrived to-day from Bremen and Cherbourg. The patient, a child, was removed to the Kingsland Avenue Hospital in Brooklyn, and nineteen steerage passengers who occupied the compartment with the patient will be transferred to Hoffman and for observation. The steamer will be disinfected and permitted to proceed about noon.

TRIES TWICE TO KILL HIMSELF IN STATION CELL

Gustave Larsen, Who Shot Policeman Lane, Now in a Padded Compartment.

Gustave Larsen, who shot and seriously wounded Policeman John Lane while the officer was serving a warrant on Larsen at his home, No. 304 Ninth street, Jersey City, Saturday, tried twice to-day to kill himself in his cell in the Second Precinct station house. Larsen is a prisoner awaiting the result of the officer's injuries.

Doomed Jacob Durr heard several prisoners shouting in the "dungeon." As he reached Larsen's cell he saw the man hurl himself from the top of his cage door to the floor headfore-most. Durr quickly clamped his handcuffs about the man's wrists and hastened out for a physician.
He returned a few minutes later to find the feeble but infuriated man beating his battered head against the side of his cell. Larsen was so weak that the contact did not injure him much. Several gashes on his face showed where the iron bars had ripped his flesh. He was then subdued and taken to the City Hospital, where he was transferred to a padded cell.
Lane answered a hurry call to Larsen's home Saturday, after a neighbor had notified Headquarters that Larsen was killing his wife. As Lane walked inside the door Larsen shot him over the heart. Lane's condition is still extremely critical.

BOY MARTYR TO PRIDE.

Sixteen-Year-Old Runaway Saved From Jail by Chance Recognition.
Sixteen-year-old Jacob Minster's father, on July 19 told him to go to work.
The boy refused, saying he wanted to study. When his father insisted Jacob ran away from his home in Washington avenue, the Bronx.
Jacob was arrested for taking three rolls and a bottle of milk from the stoop of a house at No. 672 Crotona avenue July 21. His excuse was that he was hungry.
The boy was sent to the Tombs to await trial. He had too much pride to send word to his father.
In the Court of Special Sessions Jacob was arraigned to-day, and was on the point of being sentenced when Nathan H. Stone, a lawyer, recognized him.
"I know this boy and I know his father," said the lawyer. "There surely is some mistake."
The judges thereupon paroled the boy in the custody of the probation officer.
